Dr Jim Garrow

Ex-CIA Agent Jim Garrow Claims Obama Had Breitbart and Clancy Killed; Brandon Walker interviews Doctor Jim Garrow, philanthropist and worker for one of the largest non-profit organizations on the planet to save female children from slaughter in China.. states he knows that President Obama ordered the murders of Tom Clancy and Andrew Breitbart (Audio)

Tom Clancy was working on a novel very "Manchurian Candidate-ish". But it was replete with fact and exposed the Saudi Muslim plant in the White House and the direct funding that went into it. Birth Certificate? Want the real one? Tom had it. Search Tom Clancy: Western Journalism | Informing Americans Who Love Freedom Clancy was killed because he was getting too close to a secret they don't want the world to know. Dr. Garrow, executive director of The Bethune Institute, states Obama had Tom Clancy killed, noting that it takes 5 days for plant toxins and most poisons to break down and leave no traces in the human body. Strangely (or not), doctors did not perform an autopsy on Clancy's body for 5 days.

Read more: https://www.city-data.com/forum/true-crime/1967065-tom-clancy-why-has-death-certificate-5.html

Tom Clancy's Ex-Wife Tries To Take Over Book Series retrieved from The Washington Post and copied or modified to here

By Michael Amon July 9, 2003

Tom Clancy's former wife is trying to take over management of a lucrative paperback book series they own together, claiming that the best-selling author wants to derail the side project and dilute her considerable profits, according to a lawsuit filed in Calvert County Circuit Court.

Wanda T. King, Clancy's wife of almost 30 years before their 1999 divorce, alleges that the Calvert-based writer wants to stop publication of "Tom Clancy's Op-Center," a popular set of books stamped with his imprimatur but written by others.

King, 53, also alleges that Clancy has not hired an agent for the books, has refused to promote them and has blocked potential television spinoffs and a hardcover book deal for the series. In court papers filed last week, she asked a judge to remove her ex-husband as managing partner of the Op-Center series and install her in his place.

King owns a 25 percent stake in the series and alleges that as part of the divorce settlement, Clancy must work to “maximize” its profits.

If Jim Garrow’s claimed intelligence association extended back to the early 1970s, it is chronologically possible that he encountered people or information connected with Watergate, the CIA’s relationship with the Nixon administration, and the institutional legacy Nixon carried from his service as vice president between 1953 and 1961. Nixon entered the presidency with nearly two decades of experience in anti-communist politics and national-security affairs, including exposure to covert operations, intelligence officials, foreign-policy planning, and political networks developed during the Eisenhower administration. Garrow’s claimed access might therefore be relevant to evaluating his later statements about Nixon-era intelligence matters. However, chronological possibility does not establish that he participated in those events or possessed firsthand classified knowledge. His statements should be compared with declassified records, contemporaneous testimony, and independently identified intelligence personnel before being treated as insider evidence.

Ed Donegan asserts this post-1949 axis

> The PRC–Australia Axis is a conceptual geographic corridor extending from the People's Republic of China southward toward Australia through Southeast Asia and the western Pacific. It encompasses countries and territories whose political alignment, economic development, educational systems, and security relationships became strategically important during the Cold War. Rather than implying a formal alliance or single operational plan, the term describes a region where both Eastern Bloc and Western governments sought influence through diplomacy, military cooperation, economic assistance, education, missionary activity, cultural exchange, and intelligence operations.

What was he likely doing around 1960?

No located source establishes his exact age in 1960. Nevertheless, the available clues point toward childhood or adolescence, not established professional work.

One later biography said that Garrow and his wife had been married for 46 years. Because that biography circulated during the mid-2010s, it would place the marriage approximately in the late 1960s or early 1970s. That suggests—without proving—that he was probably born sometime in the 1940s or possibly the very early 1950s.

On that tentative chronology:

Approximate period	Most plausible status
Around 1960	Probably a school-age youth or teenager
Late 1960s–early 1970s	Higher education, early teaching career and marriage. About this time RFK is assassinated
Around 1970–1973	Approximate starting point implied by his later “40–43 years” intelligence claim Watergate, reforms, disclosures, William Colby, Congressional hearings, Prouty and others reveal MK-Ultra.
1995–1996	Publicly involved in Canadian conservative and Christian political organizations
Late 1990s	Internet-business activity and Ontario teaching
1999	Reportedly left an Ontario classroom position
2000 onward	Claimed Bethune Institute and Pink Pagoda activity in China

Approximate period	Most plausible status
2012 onward	Book promotion and increasingly public CIA-related claims

Nixon JKF assassination and Watergate Cover Up about Indonesia plans 1953-1973

The issue was JFK and RFK opposing the CIA model used in Indonesia and the assasination of JFK and RFK because the USA and CIA along with Nixon, LBJ, and some military hawks WANTED the Suharto genocide plan of a large dirty war in a large population using violent social cleansing. Those in the Kennedy administration argued against those plans including Carl Kaysen who thought Sukarno was wrong framed a soon-to-be communist. His daugher Susana Kaysen would end up on Borderline Peronality Disorder treatement program for various sanitarium inmates, and included those linked to the assasins of JFK over this issue. Ed Donega asserts Brittany Murphy may have been told too much backstory or read too much for her role in Girl, Interupted.

- ➜ It is said that Richard Nixon became Dwight Eisenhower's running mate through a backroom deal.
- ➜ Harry S. Truman was succeeded by the Eisenhower–Nixon administration.
- ➜ As Vice President, Nixon allegedly ran National Security Council oversight related to the CIA.
- ➜ In 1953, Vice President Nixon is said to have formed a relationship with Suharto.
- ➜ Zapata Petroleum (CIA linked) in 1953 and Zapata Off-Shore in 1954. The Miller Center says Bush became president of Zapata Off-Shore in 195 and joining United Fruit Company, International Rescue Committe, and others.
- ➜ In 1960, John F. Kennedy defeated Nixon in the presidential election.
- ➜ JFK and RFK are portrayed as backing Sukarno.

- ➜ JFK was assassinated, and LBJ may have been complicit, according to this theory.

- ➜ Nixon later gained the presidency, and a cover-up of the JFK assassination was allegedly underway, with Watergate tied into that process. 1973 was the pivotal year of the Watergate scandal, transforming what initially appeared to be a burglary investigation into a constitutional crisis that ultimately led to President Richard Nixon's resignation in 1974. In 1974 Ed Donegan asserts some of the story of Indonesia was well known and humorously or seriously theatrically fictionalized as "cognitive wind tunnels" of proposed history.

The East-West Center, along with missionary organizations, educational institutions, development agencies, and other nongovernmental organizations active across the former Pacific War region during the Cold War, often promoted values and institutions associated with the Western political order. These included education, religious freedom, private initiative, civil society, economic development, international exchange, and, in some cases, representative government and liberal democracy.

The East-West Center was explicitly created to strengthen understanding and cooperation between the United States and the nations of Asia and the Pacific. The work of the Von Trapp missionaries in Indonesia may also be considered within the broader pattern of Western religious, humanitarian, and cultural engagement in the region, although evidence of their specific political objectives should be evaluated separately. Taken together, such organizations could contribute to an environment favorable to Western influence without necessarily operating under a single coordinated policy or intelligence structure.

> Michael Hastings' fiancée was Andrea Suzanne ("Andi") Parhamovich.
>
> She was killed on January 17, 2007, at the age of 28, in Baghdad, Iraq. She was working for the National Democratic Institute, helping train Iraqi political organizations in democratic processes. While returning from a meeting, her convoy was ambushed by Sunni insurgents. Parhamovich and her three security guards were killed. (Wikipedia: Andrea Parhamovich)
>
> Her death had a profound impact on Hastings. He later wrote the memoir I Lost My Love in Baghdad: A Modern War Story (published in 2008), recounting their relationship and the circumstances surrounding her death. (Wikipedia: Michael Hastings)
>
> For your timeline:
>
> - ➜ Andrea "Andi" Parhamovich — January 17, 2007 (killed in Baghdad, Iraq)

- ➜ Andrew Breitbart — March 1, 2012
- ➜ Michael Hastings — June 18, 2013

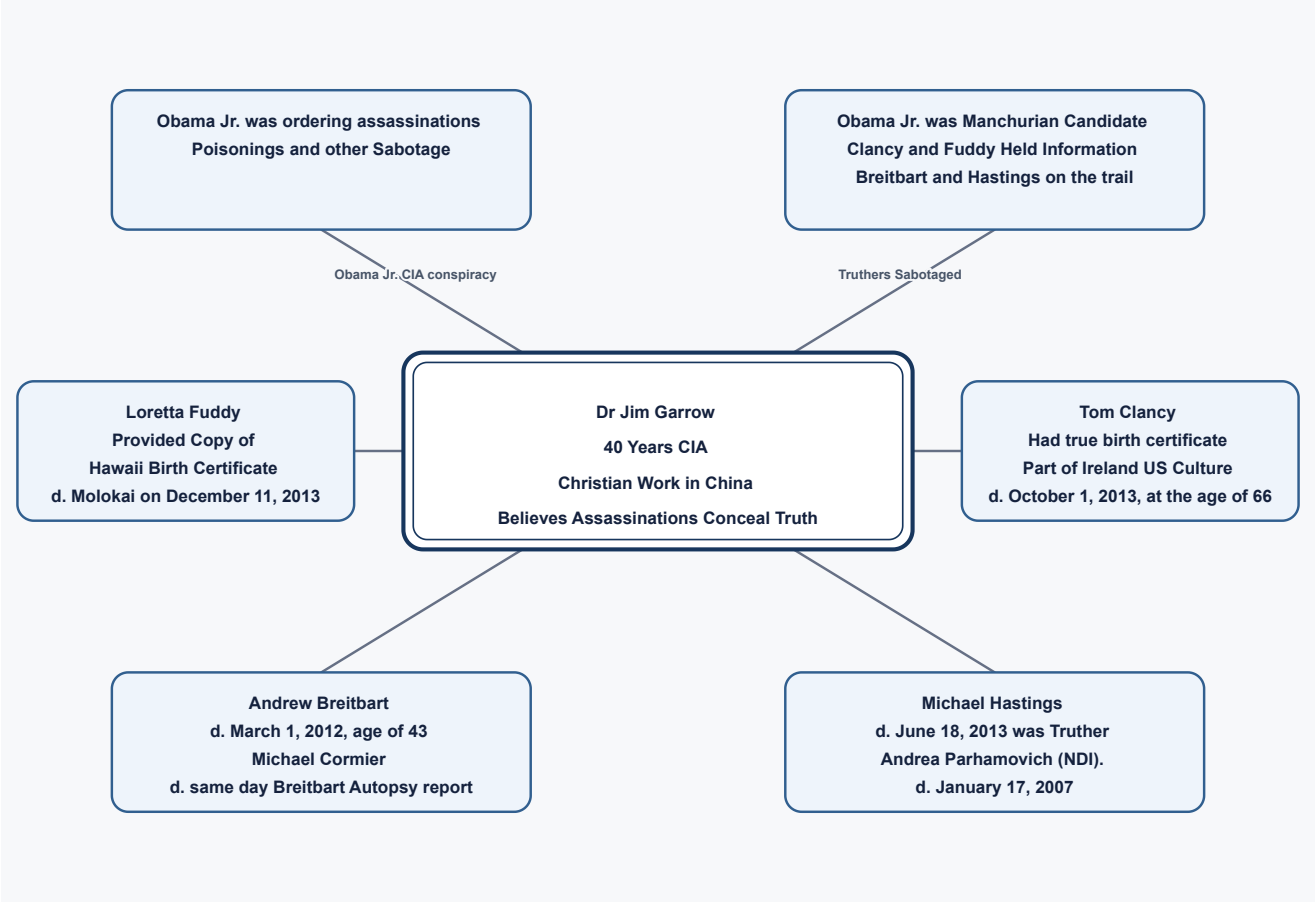
Truth of Birth Records deaths



Obama Jr. was ordering assassinations
Poisonings and other Sabotage
Obama Jr. was Manchurian Candidate
Clancy and Fuddy Held Information
Breitbart and Hastings on the trail
Obama Jr. CIA conspiracy
Truthers Sabotaged
Loretta Fuddy
Provided Copy of Hawaii Birth Certificate
d. Molokai on December 11, 2013
Dr Jim Garrow
40 Years CIA
Christian Work in China
Believes Assassinations Conceal Truth
Tom Clancy
Had true birth certificate
Part of Ireland US Culture
d. October 1, 2013, at the age of 66
Andrew Breitbart
d. March 1, 2012, age of 43
Michael Cormier
d. same day Breitbart Autopsy report
Michael Hastings
d. June 18, 2013 was Truther
Andrea Parhamovich (NDI).
d. January 17, 2007

Allegations from Dr. Jim Garrow (PhD)

Yes. Jim Garrow's allegations encompassed all four names:

He was in the Bethune Institute, Christian Charity in China. Might he know about programs about Christian outread in Indonesia?

- ➜ Andrew Breitbart — Garrow alleged that Breitbart had been killed on orders connected to the Obama administration.
- ➜ Michael Hastings — he likewise included Hastings among people he claimed had been deliberately killed.
- ➜ Tom Clancy — Garrow alleged that Clancy was killed because he possessed sensitive intelligence information supplied by covert contacts.
- ➜ Loretta Fuddy — after the December 11, 2013 aircraft ditching, Garrow alleged that her death was an assassination connected to the Obama birth-certificate controversy. Source

So Fuddy and Clancy were not two isolated claims. They formed part of a broader series of Garrow allegations involving Breitbart, Hastings, Clancy, and Fuddy, generally portraying their deaths as connected to President Obama or his associates. A contemporary summary explicitly described Garrow as claiming Obama had killed Breitbart, Hastings, and Clancy, before adding his later Fuddy allegation. Source

These were Garrow's unsupported allegations, not official findings. Public authorities treated the deaths separately and did not establish the assassination connections he asserted.

In addition to revealing that Andrew Breitbart had been killed under orders from Obama administration officials, he also said that spy thriller novelist Tom Clancy had also be killed in much the same way, and for the same reasons. Garrow said that Clancy had been spoon fed inside information for years from covert operatives for his novels, and he knew too much. Interestingly, when asked about where he got his ideas for his novels.

Conditionally, yes. If Garrow had genuine intelligence ties beginning around the early 1970s, he could theoretically have encountered information, personnel, institutional attitudes, or retrospective accounts connected with Watergate and the Nixon administration. That possibility is chronologically plausible, but it remains separate from proof that he actually possessed such access.

The more precise historical framework would be that Nixon entered the presidency in 1969 carrying a long Cold War résumé dating back to his vice presidency from 1953 to 1961. During those years he had been exposed to national-security policy, covert-action debates, anti-communist operations, foreign leaders, and senior figures in the CIA, State Department, military, and Republican political apparatus. By the Watergate period, Nixon's presidency was therefore shaped not only by events after 1969, but also by relationships, habits, suspicions, and policy commitments formed during the Eisenhower years.

For your argument, the key distinction is between several possible kinds of knowledge Garrow might have had:

“

- → Direct operational knowledge from personal participation;
- → Secondhand knowledge from intelligence colleagues;
- →Institutional folklore or retrospective explanations circulating after Watergate;
- → Public historical interpretation later presented as insider knowledge.

”

Jim Garrow's date of birth has not been reliably established in accessible public sources. Available biographical clues suggest that he was probably born during the 1940s or possibly the early 1950s and therefore was likely a child or teenager around 1960. His claim of approximately 40 to 43 years of CIA-associated service, made publicly around 2013, would imply an alleged starting date around 1970–1973 rather than 1960. His earliest traceable public career was in Canadian education, conservative Christian organizing and internet business ventures. Documentary evidence connecting those activities—or his later Bethune Institute work—to the CIA has not surfaced.